

The Center for Global Peace & Conflict Studies

CGPACS Graduate Student Panels

Come join our CGPACS Graduate Student panels on Tuesday October 14, 2008. Graduate students grant recipients will give short presentations of their current research projects..

Funding provided by the Institute on Global Conflict and Cooperation (IGCC) of the University of California, and Office of Research (OR) at UCI.

Schedule

9:00 AM Welcome: Cecelia Lynch, Director CGPACS

9:10-10:20-Panel I

Janet Alexanian, Anthropology

“At the Intersection of Media and Immigration: the Cultural Politics of Representation in the Iranian Transnational Imaginary.”

Kathryn Quick, Planning Policy and Design

“Planning at the Frontiers of Democratization and Decentralization: Urban Governance in Batam, Indonesia.”

Saba Ozyurt, Political Science

“Islam in the West: Integrating Muslim Immigrants in Western Europe and the US.”

10:20-10:30AM: Coffee Break

10:30-11:30 AM: Panel II

Nevin Aiken, CGPACS, Visiting Graduate Fellow

“Overcoming Intractability: Intergroup Reconciliation and the Politics of Identity in Transitional Justice.”

Samantha Smith, Criminology, Law and Society

“Conflict, Gender, and Ethnicity: An Examination of Legal Responses to the Rwandan Genocide.”

- Continental Breakfast Provided
- Location: CGPACS Conference Room, 777 Social Science Tower
- Contact: Cynthia Ordoñez
- Phone: 949-824-6410 or cindy@uci.edu
- For Further information please visit our website at www.cgpac.uci.edu